“And we find justice not as much by way of nature but by knowledge, namely the knowledge given to us by law and jurisprudence.”

István Werbőczy

Government Decree 152/2014 (06 June) on the Functions and Powers of the Members of the Government

“Section 82 (1) Under his/her responsibility for justice, the minister is responsible for developing the justice policy of the Government and for its implementation in cooperation with the constitutional bodies.”

The Fundamental Law of Hungary Article R

“(1) The FundamentaL Law shall be the foundation of the legal system of Hungary.”
Table of contents

Ministerial Welcome ........................................................................................................................................... 3

An Interview with Dr. Péter Darák, President of the Hungarian Association of FIDE and the President of the Curia of Hungary ........................................................................................................ 5

András Varga Zs.
Final Conferral of Sovereignty or Limited Power-transfer? ........................................................................... 8

Miklós Király
Some Remarks on the Limits of the Harmonisation of Contract Law in the European Union ......................... 14

Gyula Bándi
From Sustainability to Circular Economy – Development of EU Strategies and Its Legal Consequences ........... 20

Krisztina Karsai
Division of Competences between Member States and the European Union in Criminal Procedural Law .......... 30

Tamás Sulyok
Erga Omnes Effect of Member States’ Constitutions and Composite Constitutionality ................................. 37